v.	)	C. A. No. 05-823-
STANLEY TAYLOR, et al.,	)	JURY TRIAL REQUESTED
Defendants.	)

AFFIDAVIT OF MIKE DELOY

I, Mike Deloy, having been duly sworn by law, do hereby depose and state as follows:

1. I am employed by the State of Delaware Department of Correction ("DOC") as Warden at the Sussex Correctional Institution ("SCI"). I have been employed by the DOC since November of 1980 and as Warden of SCI since May of 2007. Prior to that, I held the position of Deputy Warden of SCI from October of 1996.

2. As Warden of SCI, I have serious reservations about having inmates sit in on depositions. First, this increases the inmates' movement in the prison, thereby increasing the likelihood of an escape or disturbance. Second, this would require more correctional staff at the depositions. SCI does not have excess staff for this purpose. Third, the criminal and disciplinary records of the plaintiffs in this matter raise additional security concerns.

3. At the request of the Deputy Attorney General defending this matter, I have reviewed the files of the twenty-five (25) Plaintiffs for their criminal and disciplinary histories.

4. At the outset, I note that many of the Plaintiffs are incarcerated for committing violent offenses. Three of the Plaintiffs are serving terms for Murder in the First Degree. Other Plaintiffs have convictions of First Degree Assault, Unlawful Sexual Intercourse, First Degree Robbery, Robbery with Kidnapping, and Escape After Conviction. These violent and dangerous offenders should be segregated, not be brought together, which heightens the security risk. As for Plaintiff George A. Jackson, he is a "lifer" (he was sentenced to 37 years and 7 months in July 1992) whose offenses include a finding of guilty for violating 11 Del. C. §832(a)(1), causing physical injury to another during the commission of a robbery.

5. The Plaintiffs' DOC disciplinary infractions also raise security concerns. Eighteen out of the twenty five Plaintiffs have disciplinary infractions on their records, including George Jackson. By way of example, Plaintiff Timothy Malloy has an extensive disciplinary history, with seven infractions, the latest occurring on August 15, 2006. Plaintiff Anthony E. Morris has a significant disciplinary history, with four infractions, the latest occurring a month ago, on November 20, 2007. Plaintiff Samuel J. Jones also has a considerable disciplinary history, with four infractions, the latest occurring on August 10, 2007. Several of Plaintiffs' relevant disciplinary reports for fighting, disorderly conduct and threatening are attached hereto.

6. For the safety and security of those attending the depositions, and to prevent the possibility of escape, George A Jackson and other named plaintiffs should not attend any depositions to which they are not deponents.

7. I have made these statements based upon my personal knowledge, specialized training, and experience as an employee of the Department of Correction.

Mike Deloy
